

PANELISTS:

Anna Kordas

Anna Kordas is a third-year student at Brooklyn Law School. Anna graduated from Macaulay Honors College at CUNY Hunter in 2008, majoring in Art History and Conservation and Media Studies. Before applying to law school, Anna worked as a paralegal at Frankfurt Kurnit Klein & Selz, and Duane Morris LLP. While at Brooklyn Law School, Anna served as a Symposium Editor of the Brooklyn Law Review, and the Social Co-Chair of the Legal Association for Women. She also spent a year researching for Professor Joel Gora, and interned at the NYS Attorney General's Office and in the chambers of Judge Elizabeth S. Stong, E.D.N.Y. Upon graduation from law school in May, Anna will join Duane Morris LLP as an associate.

Maximilian Moehlmann

Maximilian Moehlmann is a Senior Associate in the New York office of The Riverside Company, a private equity firm investing in premier companies at the smaller end of the middle market.

Mr. Moehlman joined Riverside in 2008. Previously, he interned in the private investment management division of Lehman Brothers and at Leeds Equity Partners, a private equity firm in New York. He was also an editorial intern at TIME Magazine.

Mr. Moehlman holds a Bachelor's Degree in public policy with a minor in economics from Duke University.

Hector Perez

Hector Perez is a Client Service Partner at Tatum, a leading management and advisory services firm offering hands-on strategic, financial and technology solutions. Hector is responsible for ensuring quality service to companies who are navigating through critical points in the business lifecycle and executing their strategic initiatives. Prior to joining Tatum, Hector had a fourteen year career at PwC providing Audit and Transaction Advisory Services to alternative investment and financial services clients in the US and Latin America. In addition, Hector had a national role working in the Office of the CFO and Vice Chairman, focused on driving strategic and operational initiatives for PwC.

Your First Job Through Relationships

Hector Perez is a national board member and member of the Executive Committee of ALPFA, a not-for-profit professional organization focused on building Latino business leaders. On September 30, 2012, Hector completed his second term as National President and Chair of the Board of ALPFA. ALPFA has a membership of over 22,000 members across 41 chapters. Prior to being elected President, Hector served as National Vice President for four years and National Director for three years. During this time he served in many capacities including Chair of the Finance Committee and a member of the Audit and Risk Committees. Hector is a former Trustee of the Health Care Chaplaincy, a not-for-profit organization, where he served as Treasurer and Chair of the Finance Committee. Hector is a member of the ACG New York Membership Committee.

In 2009, Hector was recognized by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for his contributions to the accounting profession. Hector is a CPA and a graduate from Pace University in New York.

Reshma Shah

Reshma Shah practices in the area of wealth planning. Her work includes the administration of estates and trusts, as well as estate and postmortem planning for high net worth individuals and families including estate plans with cross-border issues. She also has experience with clients who have made voluntary disclosures to the IRS, including clients disclosing overseas accounts. Ms. Shah is a 2011 graduate of St. John's University School of Law, where she was Executive Research Editor of the American Bankruptcy Institute Law Review, and a magna cum laude graduate of The William E. Macaulay Honors College at The City College of New York, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She is fluent in Gujarati and proficient in Hindi.
