

JONATHAN FLAKS M.C.C.

Since 1998, Jonathan Flaks has coached hundreds of executives, entrepreneurial teams, and top producers to reach exciting, bold goals.

His business clients produce revenue and profitability gains ranging from 20-300 percent. Personal improvements also include breakthroughs in interpersonal relationships, time management, confidence, career satisfaction and balance.

Clients have included leaders from Goldman Sachs, A + E Network, The United Nations, KPMG, Disney, IBM, Morgan Stanley Wealth Management, the NBA, Honeywell, Wells Fargo, Goya Foods, Merrill Lynch and many other middle-market and family-based firms.

He authored and published Income Double-Half the Trouble, and created the audio program Who Are You, Inc. - Bring Out Your Best In Business.

Jonathan draws from a diverse, 30 year business communication background. Prior to forming his coaching practice in 1998, Jonathan provided leadership and business development in management consulting, recruiting and career development, investor relations and corporate brand licensing.

He completed a dual degree from Cornell University in 1986 and later was Adjunct Professor of Leadership and Motivation at New York University.

Jonathan maintains a Master Certified Coach (M.C.C.) credential from the International Coach Federation (ICF) and was founder and past-President of the Westchester ICF chapter. He currently serves as a Vice President on the board of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG-NY) as chairperson of the Westchester /Hudson-Valley Network. Jonathan is also an ambassador for Riverkeeper.

Jonathan lives with his delightful family in Dobbs Ferry, NY. For fun, he enjoys sailing, tennis, SCUBA diving and performing live music.
